

South France, Cote D'Azur is known as high class destination or jet-set living. Towns like Nice, Antibes, Cannes and Monaco are mentioned as central places to visit on board of your yacht. Your captain will anchor in hidden coves or bays where you will enjoy peaceful, silent environment and upon that you will feel night life in Monaco for example by visiting famous Monte Carlo Casino not far away from beautiful marina located in center of town or Chateau Feodal. Visit French Riviera with Yacht and see, feel glamorous atmosphere during summer. Along with the Riviera's points of interest, the animated St-Tropez, the Belle Epoque aura of Cannes, the towns made famous by Picasso-Antibes, Vallauris, Mougins; the urban charms of Nice; and several spots where the per-capita population of billionaires must be among the highest on the planet: Cap d'Antibes, Villefranche-sur-Mer, and Monaco. The beauty of the Côte d'Azur coastline captures glamour. Beyond this, hidden in the hills, in low-lying mountains, nature lovers may discover the arrière-pays, the idyllic backcountry. Cannes, Antibes, Villefranche, Menton are included in your itinerary because they consist the centre of the Cote d'Azur. Cap Ferrat, Cap Martin are the tropical peninsulas that will amaze you with their fabulous villas, color and tranquility even in a crowded scenery; the dreamland of azure waters and indigo sky; white villas with balustrades contrasting the blue horizon. Music sounds that never end, chic mortals and VIP all in one, a happy atmosphere, a modern dream. Narrow alleys into the towns, picturesque buildings, smiley persons, VIP boutiques, glamorous restaurants and bars, yacht designers stores. Even beyond these towns, an excursion by car will reveal amazing Mougins, where Picasso spent his last years, St.Paul, Vence, Eze and other magnetic villages that remind more of a resort. The view of the blue sea and Alps in snow is a picture to remember for a life. Visit Palais Des Festivals in Nice, the old town neighborhood Le Suquet, the Musee de la Castre, the Carlton Inter-Continental built in 1912 with the famous restaurant La Belle Otero next to the 7th floor casino, La Croisette, the epitome of the Cote d'Azur. Find peace in Iles de Lerins before you visit old port in Cannes. Fort Royal built by Richelieu in the 18th century is laid in Ile Ste-Marguerite. Our reference should be for Musee de la Mer with a fabulous collection of amphorae and pottery from ancient shipwrecks. Ile St-Honorat with large chapels and thick forests of pine trees is a stop to buy herb liqueur called Lerina. Your feelings in the monastery will be unique, as if you travel through time in the past. In Antibes you may anchor in Port Vauban viewing same time Fort Carre and Alps. Between the old and modern city you have to visit the Eglise de l'Immaculee, the Chateau Grimaldi, the Musee Picasso. In Ports of Call to berth we will include Villefranche if possible, the most picturesque Mediterranean port of Cote d'Azur. Monaco and its resorts will be an experience that all should taste. Beaulieu resort sheltered between the Cap Ferrat and Cap Roux, was the pet town of 19th century society such Empress Eugenie, Prince of Wales and Russian nobles. Roquebrune Cap Martin is an isolated exclusive and great area to find out. Chateau Feodal lies above the old town. Walk in Le Corbusier to see the glorious flora of Mediterranean. Menton is a famous resort to visit in baroque style with modern amenities, Casino du Soleil, plaza Parvis St-Michel in grey and white stones, beautiful marina.
